WIFE KILLED HUBBY AND CHOPPED OFF HIS PRIVATES

EXCLUSIVE

By HARPER HAYES

A WIFE murdered her ex-soldier husband – then chopped off his willy and hurled the remains in a pond – after he asked for a divorce.

Shana Cloud, 50, has been charged with murder and concealment of a death, following a two-month investigation into the mysterious January disappearance of her husband, Clinton "Clint" Bonnell, 50.

FULL STORY INSIDE

Beeb: Musk helps spread 'fake news'

THE BBC claims Elon Musk's commitment to free speech on social media allows the spread of misinformation.

Corporation bosses issued the warning in the broadcaster's annual plan, published on Monday, as they vowed to ramp up their fact-checking unit, BBC Verify.

The broadcaster said it would help tackle worldwide "challenges to democracy" – such as fake news.

Champions

The annual plan said: "Social media companies are relaxing content moderation while positioning themselves as champions of free speech, in a move likely to increase misinformation."

The report cited the example of Mr Musk's Twitter – now X.

The Tesla billionaire (above), who bought the social media site in 2022, sacked thousands of its existing content moderators.

House price growth stalls

HOUSE price growth in the UK stalled on a month-on-month basis in March, and the market is likely to be "a little soft" now stamp duty discounts are less generous.

"Nil rate" stamp duty bands have shrunk from yesterday in England and Northern Ireland, meaning increased costs for some home buyers.

Nationwide Building Society recorded a 0.0% month-on-month average UK house price change last month, following a 0.4% monthly increase in February. The average UK house price in March was £271,316.

HIGHEST-EVER RATE OF ARRIVALS SMALL BOAT CROSSINGS 'WORSE UNDER STARMER'

THE rate of migrant Channel crossings under Keir Starmer has been higher than under any of his Tory predecessors, with more small boat arrivals this year than at any time since they began seven years ago. More than 6,600 migrants were detected in the Channel in small boats in the first three months of 2025 – over 30 per cent more than the previous record of just under 5,000 by this time last year, Home Office data shows. The early surge this year has been partly fuelled by better weather and calmer seas, as well as people-smugglers cramming more migrants into each dinghy.

With the weather expected to continue to improve during spring, the 30,000 threshold for migrants crossing the Channel under Sir Keir's watch since July is also expected to be passed within days. It came as the Prime Minister admitted at an international summit that Britain had been a "soft touch" on illegal migration for too long, blaming "fragmented" policing, Border Force and intelligence agencies, which people-smugglers exploited to bring thousands of illegal migrants to the UK.

The creation of a new Border Security Command was a key feature of the manifesto that helped Labour to power in their general election win in July 2024.

Banned Le Pen vows not to quit

MARINE Le Pen has refused to quit politics after being banned from running for president in her native France.

The 56-year-old president of the far-right National Rally party claimed millions of French voters had been deprived of a voice by an "authoritarian regime" after she was found guilty of embezzlement by using European Parliament funds to pay for party expenses.

She has been banned from running for office for five years and was also handed a four-year prison term by the Paris court, but will not go to jail.

Two years of that will be suspended, and another two served outside jail with an electronic bracelet.

The judge specified that the politics ban should come into force with immediate effect, even if an appeal was to be lodged.

This means she cannot run in the 2027 presidential race, despite being the favourite to reach the run-off. Emmanuel Macron will also not be running because of a two-term limit.

Iran in call for strike on base

IRANIAN armed forces have called for a preemptive strike on the Diego Garcia military base before America uses it to target the Islamic Republic.

A senior Iranian official said military commanders have been asked to target the joint UK-US base – which sits on Britain's Chagos Islands – in an attempt to deter Donald Trump from striking Iran.

The official in Tehran said: "Top commanders are being urged to launch preemptive strikes on the island and its base if Trump's threats have become more serious."

"Discussions about the island have intensified since the Americans deployed bombers there."

At least three B-2 Spirit jets arrived at the outpost last week, according to satellite imagery.

New guidelines mean cops to arrest fewer minorities

OFFICIAL: TWO-TIER POLICING

'WITHOUT FEAR AND FAVOUR': Home Secretary Yvette Cooper

THERE is now official two-tier policing.

New "anti-racism guidelines" tell officers they do not have to treat ethnic minorities the same as other members of the public.

The Police Race Action Plan, drawn up by police chiefs, states that it is the police who criminalise people and that arrest rates should be equalised between groups.

According to Government figures, black people are 2.2 times as likely to be arrested as white people.

There were 20.4 arrests for every 1,000 black people, and 9.4 for every 1,000 white people in the year ending March 31, 2023.

By COLIN HURST

news@sundaysport.co.uk

Chris Philp, the shadow home secretary, said that the guidelines amounted to "unacceptable social engineering" when everyone should be treated equally before the law.

It comes following a row over "two-tier justice" guidelines drawn up by the Sentencing Council, which advised courts to "normally consider" ordering a pre-sentence report about an offender if they were "an ethnic minority, cultural minority, and/or faith minority community", transgender, young or female.

The Council backed down on Monday after being threatened with emergency legislation by Shabana Mahmood, the Justice Secretary.

The police guidance, issued by the National Police Chiefs' Council and the College of Policing, states the commitment by forces to racial equality meant "producing equality of policing outcomes for people from different ethnic groups" by responding to their specific needs.

It adds: "It does not mean treating everyone 'the same' or being 'colour blind' (racial equality)". The guidelines say police should be committed to "an end to racial disparities" in policing outcomes "however seemingly impossible both may be".

The police chiefs also say forces must "become anti-racist", with the guidelines claiming that black people are "criminalised" and that it is "not enough" for officers to be merely "not racist".

In the House of Commons, Home Secretary Yvette Cooper said: "The police operate without fear and favour, and they respond to the crimes that they face across the country and to the perpetrators of those crimes whosoever they should be and wheresoever they are."

COPS CAST DOUBT ON ANDY GIRL CRASH

POLICE in Australia say there were "no reported injuries" after a "minor" car crash involving Prince Andrew's accuser Virginia Giuffrè – despite her claiming she had "just days to live" after the accident. The 41-year-old (left), who previously alleged the Duke of York had sexually assaulted her when she was a teen, shared a photograph of herself lying in a hospital bed covered in bruises to Instagram on Sunday.

She said a school bus had driven into her car at 68mph, but didn't say when or where the crash happened.

"I've gone into kidney renal failure, they've given me four days to live," she wrote.

She added that she was "ready to go" but wanted to see her kids one last time. Her spokesperson Dini von Mueffling said:

"Virginia has been in a serious accident and is receiving medical care in the hospital."

"She appreciates the support and well wishes people are sending."

However, Western Australia Police said: "The car sustained $968 worth of damage. There were no reported injuries as a result."

FANS of glamour legend Leilani Dowding fear she may be about to QUIT Britain – thanks to Keir Starmer and wokedom.

The stunna took to Twitter last week in despair, writing: "It's working. I'm getting demoralised. I have to make a conscious effort not to let them win."

"I love America but the UK is my home. I don't want to have to leave. I want rural Britain to stay rural. I want visitors to obey our laws."

"How's that too much to ask?"

Former Real Housewives of Cheshire star Leilani is now a respected commentator and has a YouTube channel documenting her life as a smallholder.

And it's the plight of the British countryside that worries her most of all.

She added: "The British countryside is the best. It hurts my heart to see it being destroyed."

Leilani, engaged to rock star Billy Duffy from the Cult, made her comments while visiting him in the US.

And her fans rallied around to offer support.

Former Corrie star Matthew Marsden wrote: "It's hard to keep fighting, especially when you see a lack of engagement from the people you are fighting for."

"There is no place in the world more beautiful than the English countryside. The sad thing is that you know you have an out, and you don't want to take it."

"You can see how America is changing for the better every day, but also how the Left destroyed California. Keep your chin up."

Psychologist Nicola Beaumont added: "When the Shires are no longer a place of retreat from the decay, it'll be time to move on – and grieve deeply for this country."

DENISE Welch has revealed her family's underwhelming reaction to reports that she had 'gone missing in a hot air balloon'.

The star joined Jane Moore, Sue Cleaver and Brenda Edwards on the ITV daytime show Loose Women.

On Saturday, unsubstantiated reports spread alleging that the 66-year-old TV personality had 'gone missing'.

"We are lucky you are here Denise – you had the nation in a panic," Jane quipped as she opened the show.

Denise went on to explain how she was 'trending on Twitter' over the weekend over a fake news article saying she'd gone missing while ballooning over the Pyrenees.

Denise told the show: "My husband's in Singapore on business and my son lives in L.A, they both apparently woke up to see I was missing... and both went back to sleep".

Snow White is on course to become Disney's worst ever-performing live-action remake, with dire reviews and controversy over everything from the war in Gaza to computer-generated dwarfs.

Analysts forecast the film will take $100 million (£77 million) globally on its opening weekend, and Disney now faces an uphill battle to make a profit on a film that cost $350 million to make and market.

The movie has been slammed over its use of CGI for the dwarves and the outspoken political views of lead actress Rachel Zegler, who has been vocal about the war in Gaza and Donald Trump.

And critics have largely dismissed the film as shit. But there are some remakes of Snow White that really ARE worth watching – the PORN spoofs!

Glitter cash is all down the sh*tter

GARY Glitter has been declared bankrupt after the paedophile singer refused to pay a six-figure compensation to one of his victims.

Glitter, real name Paul Francis Gadd, was ordered last year to pay £508,800 damages to a woman he abused when she was aged 12.

The vile nonce, 80, has now been made bankrupt after the victim's lawyers at Slater and Gordon filed an enforcement order to the High Court.

Glitter is listed on the insolvency register under his real name.

Trustees could now be appointed to seize Glitter's assets and use them to pay for the compensation figure.

The woman took legal action against Glitter following his 2015 conviction for abusing her and two other young people between 1975 and 1980.

She previously secured a 'default judgment' in her claim – a ruling in her favour over Glitter's liability – and last June Mrs Justice Tipples said the woman was entitled to damages of £508,800, after being repeatedly raped and sexually assaulted by Glitter.

Tariffs send us all back to the 40s

AMERICAN tariffs are on track to exceed levels not seen since the Second World War and bring the country billions more in tax revenue from this week.

From April 2, a day Donald Trump has dubbed "Liberation Day", imports worth more than $700 billion (£540 million) will face tariffs of up to 25 per cent.

This is in addition to an estimated $890 billion worth of imports, primarily from Mexico, Canada and China, already hit with tariffs since Mr Trump took office.

He will also set out reciprocal tariffs on any country that has already imposed tariffs on the US, including the European Union – a move which would affect over half a trillion dollars of imports from the bloc alone.

The already announced tariffs will target global car imports and a swathe of previously exempt products from Mexico and Canada, including oil.

The Tax Foundation, a US think-tank, says that since taking office, average import tariffs have doubled to 8.4 per cent, a level not seen since 1946.

A WOMAN was arrested for allegedly killing her ex-soldier husband, whose mutilated remains were found – minus the COCK – in a pond, after he asked for a divorce.

Shana Cloud, 50, was charged with first-degree murder and concealment of a death following an probe into the January disappearance of her husband, Clinton "Clint" Bonnell, 50.

Court records show a woman – identified as Bonnell's girlfriend – told cops the former Army medic met with an attorney and talked to his wife about a divorce the night before he vanished.

"My brother is a Green Beret and perfectly capable of taking care of himself," Bonnell's sister, Stefanie Firkins, said in February.

"There are suspicious circumstances about his disappearance."

"He was completely enamored with medicine and excited about his career path. He would not walk away from his life and his daughter."

Bonnell – who retired in December after 20 years in the military and was studying to become a physician assistant – was reported missing on January 28 when an employee at

Officers found his car, book bag and other personal belongings at his house, where Cloud told authorities she last saw her husband the day before.

Floating

Police then launched an investigation after receiving a second wellness check request, the sheriff's office said.

Investigators then executed multiple search warrants on the couple's home, Cloud's car, digital devices and rental house in Virginia to develop a timeline leading up to his disappearance.

Nearly a month later, on February 25, police were alerted to a body missing arms and legs floating in a pond on Gainey Road, just three miles from the couple's home.

It was also reported the corpse's GENITALS were missing.

Detailed DNA analysis confirmed the remains were Bonnell's.

"Clint was an incredible human who sacrificed so much for others and dedicated his life to the betterment of this world," his family said in a statement.

"To be taken from us prematurely at the hands of evil will never be understood. All we can do now is pray for swift and just punishment for Shana Cloud."

Cloud is being held at Cumberland County Detention Center.

Jailed over ket-fuelled church BJ

A WOMAN has been jailed for four months after she was caught sucking off a man in a side room of a chapel.

Kirsty McMaster, 32, of no fixed abode, appeared at Belfast Crown Court where she was sentenced for committing an act outraging public decency at St Mary's Chapel in Belfast on May 18, 2024.

Judge Philip Gilpin told McMaster that her actions caused upset to parishioners who had seen the incident.

Police were called to Chapel Lane that day following a report from a parishioner.

Officers at the scene found McMaster and her co-accused, Sean Paul Russell, 37, from Downpatrick, in a side room of the chapel, and they were arrested.

Due to McMaster's physical state, police took her to hospital and a toxicology report revealed ketamine was in her system.

McMaster told a probation officer she remembered meeting Russell in the city centre and her next memory was waking up in hospital.

Co-accused Russell pleaded guilty to the same charge and will be sentenced in May.

Cop sacked after texts to hookers

A MET Police officer has been sacked for using his work phone to send text messages to hookers.

PC Shabul Miah, who was attached to the North East Public Protection unit, received and sent a "significant number of texts" to mobile numbers linked to sexually explicit websites between April 5 and October 12, 2024, a misconduct hearing was told.

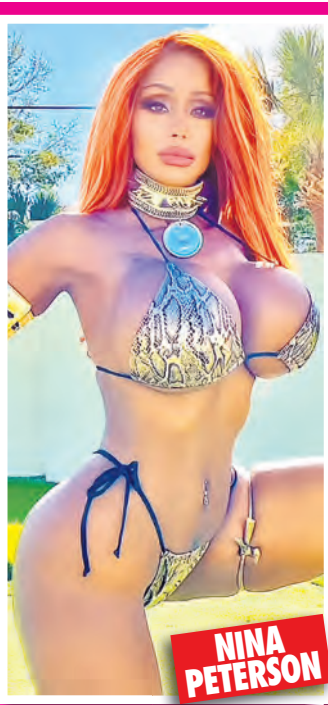

Some of the texts took place when Miah was on duty.

Miah was found to have committed gross misconduct by breaching the standards of professional behaviour in relation to discreditable conduct, and was dismissed without notice.

Chief Superintendent Dan Card, who leads the North East London policing team, described Miah's behaviour as "deeply inappropriate".

He added: "I hope this outcome shows we won't tolerate such behaviour and won't hesitate to take action against those who do not reach the standards we expect from our officers."

Miah will now be placed on the barred list held by the College of Policing.

Christian school rocked by claims TWO TEACHERS BONKED SAME TEEN

A PAIR of educators at a Christian school were held within the space of a few days on charges of sexually abusing the SAME student.

Bonnie Brown, 25, has been charged with improper sexual contact with a minor.

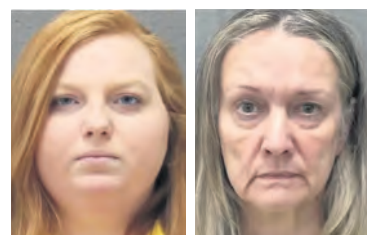

Just four days later, Sherri Maudlin, 60, was also taken into custody on charges of improper sexual contact by an employee, aggravated child molestation and statutory rape. Investigators say Brown and Maudlin's crimes took place while they were teaching at Nathanael Greene Academy in Siloam, Georgia.

The school in question has just 85 students and according to its Facebook page, it "nurtures individuality, diversity, and morality in an academic environment".

Both suspects are also graduates of the school. Brown was part of the class of 2017, and Maudlin graduated back in 1983.

Neither teacher was working at the school at the time of their arrests.

Until recently, Brown taught at Washington-Wilkes Primary School in neighbouring Wilkes County. She has now

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

been terminated from that position.

The investigation into the pair began in June 2024 after officers from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation received reports of sexual abuse at Nathanael Greene.

Ashley Mitchell, a lawyer for the victim, said the alleged abuse took place at the school's campus and elsewhere.

In a statement, the victim, via his attorney, accused the pair of taking "advantage of their positions as my teachers", adding: "My school did not protect me as a child."

"I see that now, and I hope that these arrests will protect our community and children in it."

Mitchell said she has "information to suggest" that other teachers were involved with "other victims", adding: "Students who are being groomed by teachers are in a very difficult situation. It's not until they're removed from the situation and have the opportunity to process what happened that they feel comfortable speaking out."

"There is somewhat of a double standard between high school victims who are underage who are being groomed by females as opposed to men."

The suspects were booked into the local jail as the probe continues.

Neel Elsherif, who oversees multiple companies, claimed that while flying on an American Airlines flight from New York City to Milan, an "intoxicated, Caucasian male passenger seated next to her brazenly masturbated for 60 minutes during the flight."

Elsherif expressed her concerns to a flight attendant, she dismissed her concerns and said "men just do stuff like that."

Elsherif's lawyers claimed that the flight attendant "reinforced the pernicious and unlawful stereotype that women must tolerate male predation as a fact of life."

Doc jailed over drugs for sex op

A DIRTY doctor who traded pills for sex has been jailed for 12 years.

Scott Hollington, 59 (above), of St Augustine, Florida, was found guilty in 2023 of 14 counts of unlawfully distributing and dispensing controlled substances not for a legitimate medical purpose in the usual course of professional practice, and five counts of obstructing justice.

The Drug Enforcement Administration learned of Hollington after receiving a tip-off from the St Johns County Sheriff's Office that he was exchanging narcotic prescriptions for sexual favours.

Addiction

Following additional evidence of Hollington's illegal prescribing practices, the DEA deployed undercover officers to Hollington's addiction clinic.

The officers secured 17 prescriptions of controlled substances during visits, including amphetamines.

Testimony during the trial included statements from three female victims who said Hollington had exchanged, coerced, or solicited sexual favours for drugs.

One victim described him as a "monster" who took advantage of her vulnerability while she was seeking help for her addiction.

Slave trade museum's panic room

A CAMBRIDGE museum has provided a panic room for visitors "triggered" by an exhibition about the slave trade.

The Fitzwilliam Museum has launched a flagship exhibition titled 'Rise Up Resistance, Revolution, Abolition', which explores the fight to end transatlantic slavery.

An accompanying book has caused a row at Cambridge University as it linked Prof Stephen Hawking to financial benefits from slavery.

As well as a content warning on entry to the exhibition, curators have provided a room for visitors who "may feel overwhelmed or triggered by this subject matter".

There are comfy chairs and pamphlets in the room - to guide visitors to "wellbeing" material and other resources.

These include the websites of mental health charities, including specialists with the Black African and Asian Therapists Network, and curriculum material covering an array of black history.

A SCHOOL swimming coach has been charged with 34 counts of sexual assault after shagging a teen pupil in the pool.

Police acted on an anonymous tip that said a student on the Riverside High School swim team, based in Beaver County, Pennsylvania, was having a sexual relationship with Alaina Marshall, 29.

Police contacted both the student and his parents.

The student said he had split from his girlfriend in 2023 and would talk to Marshall about it. The relationship soon became sexual and, when he was 16, the two had intercourse at another high school in the area, Blackhawk High School, after a swim event.

The student said they engaged in sexual activities approximately 10 times in late 2023 and 17 times during his junior year in 2023-24.

During the summer months of 2024, he revealed they had sexual encounters every day when he and Marshall would lifeguard at the Riverside pool and would engage with each other after the pool closed.

"Parents send their students to school, they have them in sports programmes and think they are safe and not thinking inappropriate relations are happening, and it's even more troubling when you think about the power involved in misconduct involving a high school student-athlete. The district assures the community that the individual is prohibited from entering district property. As this is a police investigation, we cannot provide further details now.

"An internal review confirms that all state and local requirements relating to background and pre-employment checks were completed."

Michael Stewart, head of the Kansas City-area Satanist Grotto, was held after a video showed him punching a protester who tried to stop him summoning the Devil.

Kansas Highway Patrol officers tackled and handcuffed him as he yelled: "Hail, Satan!" He was later released on bail for disorderly conduct and unlawful assembly.

Two of his followers, Jocelyn Frazee, 32, and Sean Anderson, 50, were also arrested for unlawful assembly at the Kansas state legislature.

BUM-WIPE VIDS JANITOR JAILED

A SCHOOL caretaker is heading to prison after he admitted recording himself having sex with kitchen utensils in the site's cafeteria.

Giovanni Impellizzeri, 25, was sentenced to eight years, five of which he must serve before he is eligible for parole.

Once he completes his prison sentence, he will be on probation for the rest of his life.

The investigation began in autumn 2023 when the Elizabeth F. Moore School in Upper Deerfield Township, New Jersey, received tip-offs about a man - later identified as Impellizzeri - sharing videos online of him doing "inappropriate acts" in the school. The clips showed him wiping his penis and anus on utensils.

He did the same - along with spitting - on multiple pieces of bread before putting them back in a container where they were being served to children.

They also depicted him masturbating and urinating on cafeteria bowls, while another showed him spray bleach on cucumbers.

Death row man's 'too fat to kill'

LAWYERS for a death row inmate are trying to stay his execution, arguing it would be unconstitutional given the prisoner's morbid obesity – which could “complicate” a planned lethal injection.

Convicted killer Michael Tanzi, 48 (above), is due to be executed on April 8.

He's been on death row in Florida since he was found guilty and sentenced for the murder of 49-year-old Janet Acosta in 2003.

He took her hostage after threatening her with a razor blade and proceeded to sexually assault and strangle her in her own car before abandoning her body in a wooded area nearby in April 2000.

An appeal states: “Someone with obesity and uncontrolled medical conditions, like Mr Tanzi, are likely to complicate the lethal injection process. Exe-him using the existing protocols is likely to cause serious illness and needless suffering.”

FLEX APPEAL

RALPH Laurent, 24, was held for following strangers around Bicentennial Park in Provo, Utah, and “aggressively” showing off his muscles – while stark naked.

I HAVE been fantasising a lot lately about having food sex – I did it once with an ex-boyfriend and I recently remembered just how much fun it was!

What was great about my experience was it just kind of happened spontaneously. Me and that fella were in the kitchen, eating cheese fondue, and we were being all cute and feeding it to each other.

The cheese clumsily dripped off my lower lip and he took me by surprise by licking it off. I instantly felt turned on.

Then I was licking and sucking it off his lips. The clothes came off soon after and for a giggle we moved on to whipped cream – right there on the kitchen table.

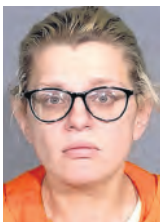

I sprayed some on the side of his neck and then licked it off. I then repeated this on his chest, his navel and finally, on his bulging cock which was hard by then.

He did the same to me – licking it off my neck, boobs, belly button and then eventually, after a long tease, my clit. The anticipation drove me wild.

It felt feral and it was so messy – which is what some of the best sex is about...

New charges for Miss who bonked teens

THE married teacher accused of making teenagers as young as 13 wear Scream masks while they had group sex with her is getting hit with new charges that could see her spending the rest of her life behind bars.

Brittany Fortinberry, 31 (above), of Indiana, has been accused of sexual abuse by yet another boy – bringing the total number of juvenile accusers to six.

Prosecutors are now preparing to slap her with another 24 charges – bringing her total to 29 – at an upcoming court hearing on Thursday.

In addition to five counts of level-one child molestation, she's additionally facing charges of sexual misconduct with a minor, dissemination of matter harmful to minors and contributing to the delinquency of a minor, as we reported last week.

Morgan County Prosecutor Steven Sonnega said that, if convicted on the child molestation charges alone, Fortinberry could face 20-40 years in jail on each count.

If the judge orders the sentences to run consecutively, she'll likely die behind bars.

Then there are 24 other counts of varying level offences, which each have maximum sentences of two to 12 years in prison.

Pee bottle dumper is taking piss

LOCALS have been left baffled as someone keeps leaving bottles of pee in their recycling bins.

One Portland, Oregon, resident who came home to find binmen hadn't emptied the full recycling bins he'd dragged out that morning said: "It is tragically gross."

Alex Van Duyn added: "I went to open the blue bin and there was a nice deposit of six gallon-size bottles of urine."

The problem became so persistent Mr Van Duyn put a security camera on his bins – and caught footage of a hooded man rolling up at night in what appeared to be a BMW, then slinking out to his boot and emptying more piss-filled plastic bottles into the bins.

"It's a lot of pee," Alex said, explaining he and his wife were "befuddled" by the bizarre dumping.

After he then stopped putting out his recycling the suspect moved on to a neighbour's bin.

Alex added: "This guy's really pissing me off."

Legal action as police chief 'runs amok'

TOP COP PLOPPED ON FLOOR

CLAIMS: Robert Farley

A TOP cop is under fire after he spiked colleagues' coffee with Viagra, shat on floors and stuck a needle into an officer's COCK, legal papers say.

Police chief Robert Farley's antics were part of a culture of humiliation, harassment and vulgarity he fostered within the North Bergen police department in New Jersey since he took charge last year, according to a group of cops preparing to sue him.

Farley was also accused of sneaking hot peppers into officers' food, sending sex toys and gay pride flags to the home of a cop and tossing eggs "in fits of anger".

Five cops filed legal action in preparation to sue for retaliation, harassment and discrimination they said they faced at the hands of Farley and his "toxic" workplace.

The officers' attorney, Patrick Toscano, said: "I have never seen anything like this in my life."

Farley, who became police chief in February 2024 after more than 20 years with the department, allegedly wasted little time to start harassing his subordinates.

Michael F. Derin, who worked as a special captain in an administrative role, accused the chief of chasing him around the office before cornering him and then poking him with a hypodermic needle through his jeans and into his penis in August last year.

Derin, a former detective, also claimed Farley shaved his body hair over people's property and their food.

When he planned on reporting the chief's behaviour to the New Jersey Attorney General's Office, he was fired.

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

He and Alex Guzman also listed numerous times Farley allegedly relieved himself outside the bathroom.

"Chief Farley has, on several occasions, pulled his pants down and defecated on the floor in front of his entire office staff," Guzman wrote in his claim.

North Bergen stood by its police chief amid the accusations, saying the town "has full confidence in Chief Robert Farley's leadership".

"We strongly deny these false and outrageous allegations made by disgruntled officers who are resorting to attacking the reputation of a dedicated public servant to further their own selfish goals."

"In order to avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest, and because we are fully confident that these claims will be proven false, we have now referred them to the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office for review."

Hey, it's Britney REARS!

BRITNEY Spears took to social media to share a slew of new selfies while wearing a see-through negligee and a red thong.

The Toxic singer wore her blonde hair down as she posed for the camera with a sultry look on her face.

In one shot, she was seen cupping her boobs while sporting a mischievous grin.

Another pic showed off the 43-year-old's shapely arse.

How on earth do anti-Heathrow MPs back a new airport in PAKISTAN?!

ULTRA-woke lefties waste no time ramming their insanities down the rest of our throats.

Chicks with dicks, non-binary children, Net Zero, banning meat and cancelling people.

When it comes to the environment, they are at their most feral – and irritating.

It's the equivalent of a toddler screaming, and because we've become such a soft touch in this country, we let them scream and scream until they make the rest of us sick.

Remember when Keir Starmer's gloriously shit government took a look at Heathrow expansion?

After decades of indecision by various governments, Starmer's lot finally said they'd approve a third runway for the world's second busiest international airport hub.

Predictably, the woke wankers burst into tears.

Rattles, Just Stop Oil posters and strap-on cocks were thrown out of prams across the nation as the left's jelly-like spines shrivelled up even tighter than before.

"You WILL," they declared, because these demented c**ts are 100 per cent convinced they know everything, "kill the planet."

With a bit of tarmac and some lights? Er, right...

But all that was, oh... months ago.

Airports are now vitally important and must be supported, says one particularly mad group of Labour MPs, along with a few former Labour MPs currently on the naughty step for not toeing the party line.

They include many of the usual-suspects – the sort who look, dress and sound like sixth form classroom warriors, probably because that's what they all still are.

The type who'll see a protest march or demo and immediately join it, even if it takes the dumb twats two hours to realise they're marching along on an All Paedos Matter campaign, (which isn't even a joke – some current, high-profile members of the Labour party genuinely have form for this).

Zarah Sultana is arguably the most well-known of these leftie goons, even if she is currently sitting as an independent because she's "rad".

It's just a few months since she was wailing that the decision to upgrade Heathrow would rev up the already "emergency" climate changes, fatally choking the planet and bringing about the end of life as we know it.

That's what these goggle-eyed lunatics really want you to believe – that the only way to save the world is to agree with and vote for Zarah Sultana (above).

Although other swivel-eyed loons are available.

And please accept my sympathetic look when the mentalist nurses turn up to cart you away.

Because Zarah, along with twenty other leftie MPs, has just signed a letter in FAVOUR of not just a new runway and terminal buildings, but an entire NEW airport.

Not quite just outside London, mind.

But in, erm... Mirpur, which, on the remotest off-chance you don't know, is in that famous part of the United Kingdom called Kashmir – the hotly contested stretch of land over 5,000 miles away between warring neighbours India and Pakistan.

A patch of land that at times makes the Gaza Strip sound like a city break destination for the future.

Where the battles between the sides have taken them, and thus the rest of us, perilously close to a nuclear war.

THAT is where those 20 Labour MPs, who from this month will get paid more out of your pockets than ever before thanks to a pay rise, are now demanding an airport be built.

You might wonder why, but keep on wondering.

Your guess is as good as mine. Because whether it's a good or bad idea, there is one thing certain.

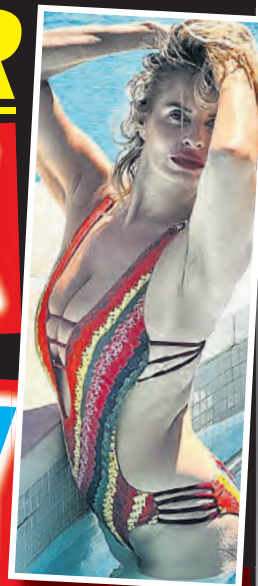

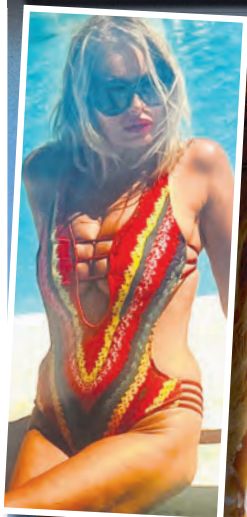

It definitely ain't our business.

So WHY do these schoolchildren politicians insist that it is?!

SHE was one of the BIGGEST glamour modelling sensations of the 1980s and Nineties...

And now Natalie Jay is back with a BANG!

Aged 50, Natalie is bursting back onto the glamour scene after setting up her own Fanvue page.

She explained: "I thought, 'Why not?' and reading about Fanvue it seemed like the ideal platform for me to return to modelling."

Natalie hopes her page will be popular with her old fans and draw a new generation of admirers.

She explained: "There are probably 18 and 19-year-old lads out there whose dads used to look at my boobs in Sunday Sport back in the day."

"It's amazing to think I can still be modelling full-frontal."

'Big Foot' denies sex with teens

A SHRINK known as "Big Foot" is claimed to have abused five youngsters at a juvenile detention centre – including one aged 15, who she groped and asked if they liked her "big boobs".

Maya Hayes allegedly plied the teens in her care at the Brookwood Youth Facility near Albany, New York, with phone privileges, hair products and food, while fondling them and forcing them to squeeze her breasts.

One victim, who was 15 when he arrived at Brookwood in October 2019, said of Hayes, 47: "She said she was sexually frustrated at home and wanted to give oral sex to some residents."

Oral

He added that Hayes – who denies all the claims against her – said "it was her fantasy and it gave her a rush to give residents oral".

"Do you like big boobs?" she allegedly asked another boy, 16, before lifting her shirt. Staff knew about the abuse and allegedly joked with victims, calling her "Big Foot".

New York State Police officers arrested Hayes last April on 65 counts of criminal sexual act in the third degree and rape.

Cops take 5hrs to spot corpse is just sex doll

A DEAD body reported by a dog walker was found to be a sex doll, after a complex five-hour probe by police officers.

The member of the public reported finding a corpse in a blue plastic bag in the north-eastern German city of Rostock, and a team of cops was sent out to find it.

The team included homicide and patrol officers, drone pilots, forensic pathologists and several fire engines, as well as a specialist 3D scanner used only for serious crimes.

Having cordoned off the area and photographed the evidence, police were laying the groundwork for a crime scene when at midnight – five hours into the search – one of the officers touched the "body" for the first time.

That was enough to quickly prove it was not flesh and blood but made of synthetic material.

The sex toy, marketed as a "real doll" for its lifelike qualities, had been disposed of in a large blue Ikea bag, with some parts of it apparently burnt.

That made it "hard to identify" and led to much speculation the doll was charred and dumped in public on purpose.

'Farage' porn star blasts left-wing reports about new memoir

MY BOOK IS NOT SOME KISS AND TELL!

WORLD SHOCKER

'NOT SHY': Nigel Farage (above) and (left) anal sex queen Valerie Fox

By JEANETTE DARWIN news@sundaysport.co.uk

A PORN babe has angrily DENIED reports in the left-wing press she is going to dish the dirt on Reform leader Nigel Farage in a new memoir.

Bum-sex queen Valerie Fox claimed she cavorted with Mr Farage on a Virgin jet before a "steamy encounter" at her home.

But she's hit back at claims in the Daily Mirror that she has "vowed" to tell all about the incident in her book when it's published this summer.

A source told the Mirror: "It will include details not previously known about her time with Farage."

"She has had some wild experiences during her life and is brutally honest about them. This book has been a long time in the making but is finally due to be released."

Valerie previously said she and Mr Farage ended up back at her flat after an overnight flight from Atlanta, Georgia, to Heathrow in March 2017.

Mr Farage had admitted giving Valerie a lift home, but said: "Nothing inappropriate happened."

Back then, Valerie – who was 30 at the time – said she and Nigel met in business class and enjoyed dinner together on the eight-hour flight.

She claimed: "He made it clear he fancied me and said he and his wife were separated."

"He knew I was a glamour model. When I told him, he said, 'I can tell... I was staring at you while we boarded the plane'."

Valerie claimed things got steamy near the end of the flight, adding: "He put his hand on my thigh, which I wasn't opposed to at all... and we started snogging."

She said Mr Farage gave her a lift from the airport to her home in Marylebone, central London, in his chauffeur-driven Range Rover.

Fox went on: "The entire way back he was holding my hand. Nigel stayed about 15 minutes. In my flat he was kissing me and had his hands all over my back and waist."

"He said, 'You're so slim. You look after your body'. When he left, we kissed in the corridor for a few minutes – we were snogging, he felt me up a bit, he wasn't shy."

After the Mirror's report was published, 34D Valerie took to Twitter to deny her memoir was a "grubby kiss 'n' tell".

She stormed: "I am upset by the media, quoting something I never said. I never 'vowed' anything."

"My book isn't just some kiss and tell memoir – it runs much deeper than that and I will not have the integrity of it tarnished because certain outlets wish to hurt someone they don't like."

"Do not use my book for your political agenda!"

THE ULTIMATE GIRLFRIEND EXPERIENCE!

Swap Messages, Pictures & Videos with Gorgeous Girls!

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Ashleigh,

I'm a 58-year-old fella and I live in a block of flats where my neighbours are mostly middle-aged divorced women.

Two of them are really fit and last week the three of us decided to have a couple of lagers at my place.

One thing led to another and I ended up mounting one from behind as I played with the other one – before swapping over.

Then I climbed on one in the missionary position and gave her a proper rodding, before doing the same with her pal.

Now one of my lovers has suggested they both move into my flat.

It's tempting, from the sex angle, but I like being free and single.

What do you think?

GE, Birmingham

Ashleigh says...

WHATEVER you decide, just keep bonking – it will keep you all young and fit!

Dear Ashleigh,

I'm a big fan of EastEnders but my girlfriend, who is from up north, is a Coronation Street nut who records all the episodes so she can view them over and over.

I think she's crackers but I realise we all have to make some sacrifices.

Mind you, she does reward me by letting me do her up the bum once a week and also gives me a daily blowjob.

But having sat through all these episodes, I've started picking up a Mancunian accent.

Any advice?

KD, east London

Ashleigh says...

COUNT yourself lucky that she's not into watching old episodes of Crossroads!

Dear Ashleigh,

MY bird's best mate has just split up with her long-term boyfriend.

She's a really fit blonde – with great legs, a lovely round arse and a cracking pair of boobs.

I saw her in the pub a few days ago and she said that she had always fancied me and would like to have sex with me until she finds a new boyfriend.

I'm tempted, as she said she wouldn't tell my bird and I've heard she's absolutely filthy in bed.

What do you think?

NH, Manchester

Ashleigh says...

IF you can trust her, go for it – but it sounds a bit dodgy.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

Busty barmaid pulled more than just a pint!

Dear Ashleigh,

A COUPLE of weeks ago, a brand new busty barmaid started work at my local pub.

She's in her mid-40s and is a typical pint-puller – all tight skirts, low-cut tops and a face caked in make-up.

I'm in the boozier most nights for a couple of drinks and the "crack" with some of the locals – anything to get away from the nagging wife for a few hours.

One night, it was a bit quiet and as the barmaid was pulling my second pint I realised I was the only customer in the place.

She had a wicked grin on her face and told me to watch the bar for a minute while she went to the front door of the pub and locked it.

Horny

I told her she'd get a bollocking from the landlord, but she laughed and said he'd gone out for the night and wouldn't be back until the early hours.

Then she grabbed my wrist and led me upstairs to the private quarters.

She said it was obvious that I wanted a shag and as she was feeling horny too, there was no point in messing about.

She leaned forward so her boobs spilled out of her top and rubbed them in my face.

At the same time, I felt her fingers unzipping my pants and she pulled out my cock and began wanking it quite vigorously.

Then she fell backwards on to a sofa with her skirt pulled up and her panties down and skillfully guided my knob into her pussy.

I hardly had time to do some serious shagging before I'd shot my load.

She cried out in ecstasy – but wasn't satisfied with that.

Soon she was sucking me hard again and I had to f**k her twice more before she'd let me go!

Now she wants me to leave my wife and move in with her.

But I could never dump my missus for such a brassy trollop.

What should I do?

TD, Leeds

Ashleigh says...

FIND another pub.

Dear Ashleigh,

I'VE been dating my girlfriend for three months. She's 21 and blonde – with a cracking pair of tits.

She loves taking it in every hole and she gives the best blowjobs I've ever had.

But, the best thing about her is her 39-year-old mum, who's also blonde but better-looking with a nice figure.

I've had loads of wanks about her since I caught her taking off her clothes for a shower and saw her 36DDs in the flesh.

She actually gave me a cheeky smile and wiggled her arse at me!

I'm torn between making a move on her or telling my girl what her mum did.

BW, Dorset

Ashleigh says...

MAKE a move and see what happens...

Dear Ashleigh,

MY wife and I went away on holiday to Spain recently.

She's 36 and pretty fit, but we don't often have sex these days.

On our first night, when we had finished our meal, she said she felt tired and went back to the hotel room to get some sleep.

I said I would go for a beer in the town and try not to disturb her later.

In one bar I got talking to a young English girl. She was flirty and offered to take me outside with her.

On the beach, this gorgeous blonde babe went to work, licking and sucking on my length and cradling my balls in her hands as I lay on the sand.

Then I dropped to my knees to peel off her G-string with my teeth.

She had a bush that was trimmed neatly with a landing strip and I slid my tongue into her fanny.

Finally, I bent her over and gave her a right good seeing-to.

But imagine my surprise when I went down to breakfast the next morning with the wife and found out the girl I had shagged was our waitress!

She blabbed to the wife, who's now not talking to me.

What shall I do?

DM, Kent

Ashleigh says...

SAY sorry and book another holiday.

Massive trouser snake made me hiss with joy

Dear Ashleigh,

I'M a 23-year-old woman and I work in a pet shop. A couple of weeks ago a man came in just as I was locking up.

He said he was interested in buying a large, exotic snake. But after a while it was HIS snake that I started to show an interest in!

I noticed a bulge developing in his trousers as he seemed to be turned on by my sales patter.

But I carried on and he slipped his hand into his pocket and I could see him playing with himself.

I was getting a bit excited myself by that time, so I told him I would show him a few reptiles.

I led him to my back room, but I guess he must have twigged what I had in mind.

Thrusting

As soon as I'd closed the door behind us, he unzipped his pants and brought out the most amazing trouser-snake I've ever seen.

It must have been at least 10 inches long and a good three inches in girth.

I bent over a table and he was soon thrusting away at me with his monster cock. I let out a squeal of delight as my dam burst.

He promised he'd come back the next day to pick up his pet snake – but he never returned.

Do you think I put him off by making myself such an easy lay?

FP, Northumberland

DISHY Ava Dalush admits she loves nothing more than sunbathing NAKED!

The north London bombshell confessed that she always goes TOPLESS on sunny afternoons during the summer months to avoid tan lines.

And Ava, from Camden, reckons her stunning exhibitionist display is the perfect way to attract blokes!

The 32D scorcher said: "I love feeling the heat of the sun on my bare body."

"When I'm relaxing nude at the beach, all the guys start checking me out – which isn't really surprising!"

And Ava isn't shy about mixing sun, sea and sand with sex when she's in the mood for some hot action.

She added: "Most fellas don't think they have a chance with me, but I'm actually very fun and flirty. "I'm definitely up for a holiday romance. You're away from home, so why not?"

#HOT'N'HORNY

BUSTY Becky Dee has a secret passion – she loves to have sex outdoors, preferably when there's a risk of being caught!

The 34C Cardiff babe said: "I remember once an old boyfriend of mine and I went for a Sunday afternoon stroll along a canal bank. "It was a really hot summer's day and we were both soon feeling really horny.

"I took his hand and led him into some bushes near the canal bank and we quickly started to undress each other.

"I could feel his cock stiffening with excitement and I was ready to take it all – I was that moist.

"I decided I'd tease him by giving him a blowjob first.

"He was nearly ready to explode when a party boat carrying a bunch of lads drinking beer went past and they caught sight of us.

"The cheers could be heard for miles around!

"And we didn't disappoint them as we carried on and I ended up with my face covered in my fella's hot sticky juice."

MONICA loves wearing stripes – because she says it makes her giant boobs look even BIGGER!
The Yank cracker said: “My busters look bigger still when I whip them out in your face!”

WELCOME to interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

DEE IVENS

LIFEGUARD Jamie Walker begged us for a pic of his all-time favourite topless babe, Dee Ivens.

The 28-year-old works at his local pool in Dorset during the winter and as a beach lifeguard in summer.

Jamie said: "I love meeting women but this summer that's not going to happen as much."

"Instead, I'd love to give Dee Ivens the kiss of life – she's still stunning after all these years!"

TESSA FOWLER

CHEF Kevin Bennett would be happy to serve up his meat 'n' two veg to gorgeous Tessa Fowler.

Kevin, 54, cooks up a storm in his local pub kitchen in Nottingham and he'd give himself to his Leicester neighbour on a plate.

He said: "Those 34FF boobs get me going every time."

"I'd definitely give her a taste of my sausage!"

"I'd serve up sausage for starter, meat and two veg for her main and then she can have some cream for dessert - she'd have the best meal of her life!"

KAREN WHITE

PERSONAL trainer Charlie Briggs would love to work up a sweat with Karen White and her pert bosoms.

The 38-year-old gym bunny, from Rotherham, South Yorks, would even give the Brighton belle free training sessions.

And he'd be more than happy to offer his support to her perfect 34Ds while she's enjoying a good workout.

He said: "I'm a boob man and I've still never seen a better pair than Karen's throughout the years."

THIS WEEK IN SPORT HISTORY

- 1878: Jack Johnson, the first black man to win the world heavyweight boxing title, was born. Because of discrimination in the United States, he had to travel to Australia for his successful title challenge against Tommy Burns. Johnson died on June 10, 1946, aged 68.
- 1889: The world featherweight title fight between Ike Weir and Frank Murphy was stopped by police after 80 rounds. It is the longest world title contest under Queensberry Rules.
- 1928: Scotland's 'Wembley Wizards' inflicted a 5-1 defeat on England, with Alex Jackson scoring a hat-trick.
- 1980: Jesse Owens, the athlete who once set four world records in one day and won four gold medals at the 1936 Olympics in Berlin, died.
- 2001: Former Arsenal and England midfielder David Rocastle died at the age of 33 from non-Hodgkin's lymphoma.
- 2003: Peter Ridsdale resigned as chairman of debt-ridden Leeds after five years and was succeeded by Professor John McKenzie.
- 2011: Sale prop Karena Wihongi was handed a four-month ban after testing positive for the banned stimulant methylhexanamine.
- 2013: Paolo Di Canio was appointed Sunderland head coach on a two-and-a-half-year deal. He was later sacked after just 13 games in charge.
- 2014: England lost to the Netherlands by 45 runs in their final World Twenty20 match in Chittagong.
- 2018: Darron Gibson left Sunderland by mutual consent after being charged with drink-driving.
- 2021: England bowler Jofra Archer had successful surgery to remove glass from his right hand ahead of two weeks of rehabilitation.
- 2022: England reached the World Cup final with a 137-run victory over South Africa as Danni Wyatt scored 129 and Sophie Ecclestone claimed six for 36. England would go on to lose to Australia in the final.
- 2023: Michael Vaughan was cleared of an England and Wales Cricket Board charge of using racist and/or discriminatory language during his time at Yorkshire.
- 2024: Arsenal beat Chelsea to win the Women's League Cup. Stina Blackstenius scored the extra-time winner.

EVIDENCE POINTS TO BAILEY'S!

Kim can Destroy rivals at Ludlow

DESTROYTHEEVIDENCE has age on his side against a relatively exposed set of rivals in the Weatherbys nhstallions. co.uk Boyle Cup at Ludlow.

The Kim Bailey and Mat Nicholls-trained seven-year-old was an above-average hurdler, finishing second in Grade Two company, and has taken well to jumping fences.

October's Chepstow defeat of Haiti Couleurs reads really well considering what the runner-up has achieved since, albeit his three subsequent wins include gaining revenge when Destroytheevidence disappointed at Cheltenham in December.

Depth

Destroytheevidence put that blip behind him when going down by just a neck to Deafening Silence following an engaging duel at Warwick in February and now has the scope to see off a field of veteran opponents.

Mister Cessna can take advantage of the weight he receives from Bond Broker in the Nightjar Novices' Hurdle.

his depth when finishing down the field in the Fred Winter at Cheltenham but had previously been a solid second to the highly rated Vyanni here and had some decent form in France.

At Exeter, Super Saint stands out in the Dr Hennis 1833 Novices' Handicap Hurdle after coming good for Paul Nicholls at Sedgefield last time out.

Having faced tough assignments on his first three outings over timber, the six-year-old attracted strong support on his handicap debut and ran on well to prevail by a comfortable three lengths.

A half-brother to classy French performer Champ De Bataille, Super Saint seems capable of continuing on a steep upward curve now the penny has dropped.

On the Flat at Musselburgh, newcomer Filly Foden is of interest in the Livescore Bet EBF Restricted

Novice Stakes having been the subject of some glowing reports from the Alice Haynes gallops.

The daughter of Ardad is a half-sister to two winners, including a Listed-class scorer in France.

Spartan Arrow can make the long journey up from Archie Watson's Lambourn yard worthwhile in the Virgin Bet Daily Price Boosts Handicap.

Tasty

Twice a winner at three, he was sidelined after an eye-catching third of 17 in a hot York contest last May but has recently shown his well-being on the all-weather.

Following a Newcastle sighter, the five-year-old son of Sioux Nation landed some tasty bets at Wolverhampton when getting up close home and looks one to keep on side.

Margot Robbie is rated the star attraction on Southwell's all-weather card in the second division of the Gamble Responsibly At BetMGM Handicap.

THURSDAY

LOSSIEMOUTH is fancied to come out on top in a fascinating clash with Constitution Hill for the William Hill Aintree Hurdle.

Seven Barrows superstar Constitution Hill was a decisive winner when the pair crossed paths for the first time in the Christmas Hurdle on Boxing Day, but just over three months later there is reason to believe the result may be different.

AND AINTREE TOMORROW

Lossiemouth appeared to be taken off her feet over a sharp two miles around Kempton, but was only beaten two and a half lengths at the line and she has since bounced back from a crunching fall in the Irish Champion Hurdle with a dominant defence of her Mares' Hurdle crown at Cheltenham.

Constitution Hill, on the other hand, came to grief for the first time in the Cotswolds, eventually paying the price for standing off his obstacles when clipping the fourth from home and tumbling to the Prestbury Park turf.

The eight-year-old has reportedly undergone extensive schooling since and if the Aintree Hurdle were over two miles, there is every chance Nicky Henderson's pride and joy would have too much speed for Lossiemouth once again.

However, the two-and-a-half-mile trip is Lossiemouth's optimum and in receipt of 7lb, the longer distance may just tip the balance in her favour.

The opening EBC Group Manifesto Novices' Chase also throws up a Henderson-Mullins dust-up and it is the reigning British and Irish champion trainer who is once again expected to come out on top.

A step back up to two and a half miles looks the right way to go with Henderson's Jango Baie judged on his late surge to lift the Arkle at Cheltenham, but that hard-fought victory was only three weeks ago and the obvious question is whether this will come too soon.

The Mullins-trained Impaire Et Passe has been kept fresh since finishing third at the Dublin Racing Festival in February, just as he was last year when coming out on top in a pulsating three-way finish with Bob Olinger and Langer Dan in the Aintree Hurdle.

With cheekpieces on for the first time, the seven-year-old is a confident pick.

Impressive

Lulumba's defection has thrown the Boodles Anniversary 4-Y-O Juvenile Hurdle wide open and at the prices, it may be worth taking an each-way punt on Harry Derham's Filibustering.

The Postponed gelding could hardly have been more impressive on his hurdling debut at Kelso in February and while the form is possibly nothing special, he looks capable of holding his own at a higher level.

Spillane's Tower gets the vote in the Brooklands Golden Miller Chronograph Bowl Chase.

Jimmy Mangan's stable star won twice at Grade One level as a novice over fences last season and made a hugely encouraging start to the current campaign when splitting Fact To File and Galopin Des Champs in the John Durkan at Punchestown. On the strength of that elite form, Spillane's Tower was favourite for the King George on Boxing Day and while his performance in finishing fifth was underwhelming, it is easily forgiven given the mad pace in that race.

He comes here fresh having been off the track since Christmas and a bold bid is anticipated.

My Drogo can continue his renaissance with victory over the Grand National fences in the Randox Foxhunters' Open Hunters' Chase, while this track is likely to play to strengths of the seriously talented but difficult to win with My Mate Mozzie in the Close Brothers Red Rum Handicap Chase.

Day one of the Grand National Festival concludes with the Goffs Nickel Coin Mares' Standard Open National Hunt Flat Race, in which the speedily-bred Seo Linn should take some beating.

NATIONAL HOPE: Sean Bowen

Bowen Brags about his big Aintree hope

GRAND NATIONAL COUNTDOWN

SEAN Bowen will try to fulfil his boyhood dream in Saturday's Randox Grand National as he teams up with Gordon Elliott's Three Card Brag at Aintree.

Bowen, who has a healthy lead over Harry Skelton in the jockeys' championship race, has ridden plenty of winners for one of Three Card Brag's owners, Max McNeil, through his association with Olly Murphy.

"The Grand National is a race I've dreamed of winning since I was a young boy, it's the one race everyone has heard of, and if you win it, that can never be taken away from you," said Bowen, who is looking forward to the big race.

"I finished fourth on Noble Yeats two years ago, that's my best finish, but every ride I've had in the race has been exciting, changes have been made to it we know, but it's still very special for a jockey to ride in it."

"I've enjoyed plenty of luck riding for Gordon and Max McNeill, so I think a conversation took place between Gordon and Max, and both were keen for me to ride Three Card Brag, which I was very grateful to Gordon Elliott for."

"I've not ridden him before but he's been trained for the race, and there is no better man than Gordon to aim a horse at the National, his record in the race speaks for itself."

"He will get in the race off a lovely looking weight, he seems to jump well, and he stays well, so he should go into the race with a chance."

"It's the National though, so I can't be taking anything for granted, but it's a really exciting ride to have."

Another jockey looking for his first win in the race is Jonjo O'Neill Jr, who is out to achieve something his famous father never managed by riding the winner.

O'Neill Jr partners Iroko for Oliver Greenall and Josh Guerriero, and he is the leading British-trained contender.

"I'm well aware that anything can happen in the National, so you don't get yourself too worked up, but his prep has been very good and it's going to be the first time that I've got a horse with a real chance in it."

"He's got a nice weight, he's had a nice preparation and I wouldn't want to swap him. You can make a case for a lot of the contenders," O'Neill said.

"I am excited because I genuinely can't see any flaws in him at the minute and he's got a lot of things going for him, he just needs a bit of luck now."

Johnny Burke, who on Monday had been booked to ride Stay Away Fay for Paul Nicholls, has now switched to Willie Mullins' Minella Cocooner, leaving Paul O'Brien to take the ride as the original intended jockey Bryony Frost is also unavailable as she's riding in France.

MAGPIES BOSS ON EUROPE MISSION

Howe wants Champions League

HOWE ABOUT THAT: Now Eddie wants a Champions League finish

NEWCASTLE'S Carabao Cup party is over as Eddie Howe pursues a "game-changing" return to the Champions League.

Around 300,000 fans turned out to welcome the club's first major trophy in seven decades back to Tyneside on Saturday. But for head coach Howe and his players, the focus has turned to Wednesday's Premier League clash with Brentford at St James' Park and the race to rub shoulders with Europe's elite once again.

Asked if Champions League football next season represented a bigger prize than the League Cup, Howe said: "There's no doubting the power of Champions League football."

Extra

"It could be game-changing in terms of revenue and also in terms of what it means and the competition, and then of course the changes that you have to make to be ready for Champions League football."

"That changes everything – as we found last year to our cost to some degree with the extra games – so there's a lot to think about."

"But for us, qualifying for that is going to be very, very difficult. There are, as we know, 10 games, there are a lot of teams competing for those places."

"It's one of the tightest

By PAUL THOMAS

Premier Leagues that we've seen in recent times, very little between the teams competing for those places, so it's going to come down to who is the most consistent. "Of course, we want that to be us and in those 10 games, we are going to have to give everything to get there."

Sixth-placed Newcastle played in the Champions League last season for the first time in 20 years, but they know they have their work cut out if they are to make it again.

Their big day at Wembley coincided with one of their best performances of the campaign as goals from Dan Burn and Alexander Isak secured a 2-1 win over league leaders Liverpool.

However, Howe admits consistency remains an issue and a run of three defeats in their last five home games – by Bournemouth and Fulham in the league and Brighton in the FA Cup – is testament to that fact.

The 47-year-old said: "I can't argue with that. That is the big question mark against us, and I include myself in that."

"That is the big question:

can we be that team that we were against Liverpool? You can't be there every game, but you can still reach a standard and win the game. That is what we have got to try to do."

"We have done it – we played West Ham before the final, didn't play great, but won the game through defensive steel, really."

"We have to find ways to win games when we are not at our best so hopefully when your performance is where it needs to be, you have the quality to win."

Carabao Cup winner Jacob Murphy is taking inspiration from Newcastle team-mate Burn as he attempts to get into England contention.

Murphy looked on proudly as Burn won his first England cap in a World Cup qualifier against Albania five days later at the age of 32 and, having been told repeatedly by Newcastle coach Graeme Jones that should be his aim too, has not given up hope of following suit.

The former Norwich man said: "To see Dan get his call-up was amazing. It does give you that extra motivation to know it's possible. We've got Gordy [Anthony Gordon], Lewis Hall, Tino and when you're kicking it with them every week, you know what you have to offer, you think there's every chance in the future."

Regular

"I keep my head down and, you know, I've just won a cup with Newcastle, so who's to say no to getting a call-up?"

Murphy, a £12million signing from Norwich during the summer of 2017, at one point looked to be heading out of St James' Park, but he has established himself as a regular in Eddie Howe's side after striking up a hugely productive partnership with star striker Isak.

He said: "The journey I've been on... There's one point where everyone thought it was my time to go."

"I never thought that and here I am on a journey I'm proud of and one my family are proud of. It's just awesome."

TOWN'S LATE CALL ON KALVIN

IPSWICH have been assessing Calvin Phillips ahead of Wednesday's trip to Bournemouth as he recovers from a foot issue sustained in their last match.

The 4-2 loss to Forest at Portman Road on March 15 saw on-loan City midfielder Phillips come off late, having suffered a gash to his foot.

And boss Kieran McKenna told a press conference: "It was 20 plus stitches, a pretty serious gash, so he hasn't been training with us."

"But he isn't too far away now, so that's a judgement to make."

After the Bournemouth contest, the relegation-threatened Tractor Boys – who are currently 18th in the Premier League – host 17th-placed Wolves on Saturday.

McKenna added: "There's a few others in that boat as well."

"We're assessing people to see who's going to be available for the first game and if anyone doesn't make the first game then there'll be a possibility they'll be available for the second."

Defender Axel Tuanzebe, who has missed the last two matches, and forward Conor Chaplin, absent since December, are in training.

Ipswich have Sammie Szmodics (ankle), Wes Burns (knee) and Chiedozie Ogbene (Achilles) out after undergoing operations.

WAITING: Phillips

DOUBT: Van Der Merwe

Lions face wait over VD Merwe

RUGBY UNION

EDINBURGH are still waiting to learn the extent of Duhan van der Merwe's ankle injury and whether it will affect his potential British and Irish Lions involvement this summer.

Scotland's record try-scorer Van der Merwe has been in a moon boot since limping off early in the URC victory over Dragons on Friday and had a scan on Monday.

Edinburgh head coach Sean Everitt was unwilling to be drawn on the severity of the star wing's injury, other than to say it is not linked to the ankle issue the South Africa-born 29-year-old played through in the recent Six Nations.

"Duhan went for a MRI today," Everitt said. "We haven't had the results back. We should know that early this evening."

"He's in a boot. But we can't see the damages. A little bit of soreness and swelling this morning and that's all I can report on."

If fit, Van der Merwe, who toured with the Lions in 2021, would be expected to be selected by Andy Farrell when he names his squad on May 8 for this summer's tour of Australia.

Asked if he had any indication of the severity of the injury and whether it might cast any doubt on his Lions prospects, Everitt said: "I wouldn't know because, like I say, we'll get the results for that and then we'll issue an injury report on those two guys."

(Edinburgh and Scotland lock) Marshall Sykes as well, once we've received the results back."

All going to plan, Edinburgh hope to have two wings in the Lions squad.

While Van der Merwe looks set for a spell on the sidelines, fellow back Darcy Graham has been staking his claim for involvement in the trip Down Under after an injury-disrupted couple of years.

The 27-year-old followed up his recent try-scoring contributions for the national team against Wales and France by returning to club rugby with a man-of-the-match display against Dragons.

"It's just great to see him getting consistent rugby," said Everitt. "Unfortunately in that early game in the Six Nations (against Ireland), he got the crack on the head, but he certainly bounced back. He was a thorn in opposition in the Six Nations when he was playing for Scotland after that."

"Once again, we can see the X-factor that he provides to the team."

YANKS YOUR

FOR ALL SUPPORT

WREXHAM FC's increasing popularity in the United States helped the club secure record revenue of £26.7million in their latest accounts, up 155 per cent on the previous year.

The Welsh side, who are co-owned by Hollywood stars Ryan Reynolds and Rob McElhenney, said they generated more than half (52.1 per cent) of that record turnover from outside Europe – primarily North America – for the year ending June 30, 2024.

That compared to 24.6 per cent of turnover being generated outside Europe in the previous year's figures.

The club said that spectacular rise highlighted the impact of the 'Welcome to Wrexham' Disney documentary series, with the fourth instalment currently being filmed.

"While the documentary does not contribute any direct financial return for the club, it delivers incredible global exposure for Wrexham and provides the club with a unique marketing platform that can be monetised through the delivery of TV exposure for our partners," the club said.

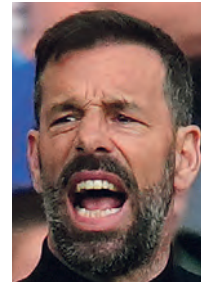

Commercial revenue increased from £1.83m in the previous accounts to £13.18m in the latest set.

Wrexham said a new global membership scheme now accounted for 25 per cent of all club memberships, highlighting their overseas appeal.

Increased costs contributed to an overall loss of £2.73m, down from £5.11m in 2022-23.

Wrexham are still in with a good chance of securing a third-successive promotion, with the club placed second in League One with seven games left to play.

PUMPED: Van Nistelrooy

Ruud: It's a buzz to take on Pep's City

By PAUL THOMAS

RUUD van Nistelrooy says there would be "something wrong" with his Leicester players if they were not excited to be playing Manchester City.

Leicester visit Premier League champions City on Wednesday after an awful run of results which has left them nine points from safety.

The Foxes have lost 13 of their last 14 league games, and seven in a row in all competitions, and time is fast running out on their bid to stay in the top flight.

A trip to the Etihad Stadium offers little comfort for turning around their fortunes, but boss Van Nistelrooy said: "Can you imagine you're a player and you can play Manchester City away, what the feeling will be?"

"OK, we're in a battle, but everybody is looking forward to these games.

"These are the four-time Premier League winners in a row. They are in the semi-final of the FA Cup again and battling to reach Champions League football.

"They've been the dominant force in England and Europe for many years now with Pep (Guardiola).

"When you're not looking forward to these games, then there's something wrong with you."

Van Nistelrooy says Leicester will face a team "rebuilding for the better" following the January arrivals of Abdou Diallo, Khusanov, Nico Gonzalez and Omar Marmoush.

But the Dutchman does not have to worry about 30-goal striker Erling Haaland, who is set for a spell on the sidelines after suffering an ankle injury during City's 2-1 FA Cup quarter-final win at Bournemouth on Sunday.

"He's the best striker, for me, in the league," said Van Nistelrooy, who used to score freely across Manchester at Old Trafford during his playing career.

"He's the best of the best and has an A mindset and an A quality to continue with that for many more years.

"With a guy like him you have a guarantee for 30 goals, and apparently he played a bad season.

"So you can imagine what starts to happen when he plays well. He scores 60 or 70 maybe."

TON OF TROUBLE

Seagulls face losing key men for rest of the season

BRIGHTON have suffered a double injury setback ahead of their Premier League clash against Aston Villa.

Georginio Rutter, a club-record £40million signing from Leeds last summer, and defender Adam Webster were hurt during Brighton's FACup quarter-final loss to Nottingham Forest.

And Albion head coach Fabian Hurler has admitted there is a possibility that both players could be sidelined for the rest of this season.

Rutter twisted his ankle, while Webster suffered a muscle injury, joining a casualty list that already included the likes of Jason Steele, Igor Julio and Joel Veltman.

"So, both injuries, I can say they don't look great," Hurler told reporters at his pre-match press conference.

"So we have to add them on our injury list. It's possible (they could miss the rest of the season). I will never complain about the injuries. Of course Georginio and also Adam, they were in great shape, but that's football. We have to deal with it.

"We have to deal with the injuries this season, and therefore we are always a team able to replace the injured players.

"Now other players have the chance to step in, and that is why I am really looking forward to it."

Brighton are scheduled for Wednesday's visitors to the south coast Villa are both in the mix to secure European spots next term.

With nine league games left, Brighton are seventh, two places and two points above Unai Emery's team.

And Albion will target an immediate response following the agony of a penalty shoot-out defeat against Forest.

Hurler added: "It's a great opportunity for a comeback.

"The feeling we had after Saturday wasn't great, but I always say the feeling of a comeback is always greater, and therefore we have to work for it, and on Wednesday we have a big chance for that.

"It is about how you come back, how you stand up. We have proved so far we are a team that can stick together, especially in times like this. We have to show a reaction as a team.

"It's a duel where we know that it will be a big fight. We know what Villa look like – a very mature team, very experienced team. They are still in three competitions and going for a title.

"I think they have had a great season and it's another chance for us, another opportunity. We have to play very maturely and with a big intensity.

"We can't play soft like we played in some moments against Nottingham Forest. We have to be more ruthless."

Villa face losing a key man of their own – with sporting director Monchi being linked with big clubs in Spain.

Happiness

His former club Sevilla have reportedly offered him the chance to return but he is making the right noises about staying in Brum.

He said: "There are many exciting things at Aston Villa. They welcomed me warmly.

"I feel loved, very comfortable here with my apartment.

"I'm happy. I miss many things about Spain, but right now my happiness is comparable to Aston Villa. I want to focus on this wonderful present."

IT'S THE MERSEYSIDE DERBY

RESET IS HISTORY AT KOP

Slot: Players are refreshed and ready for one last push to win Premier title

LIVERPOOL head coach Arne Slot feels the international break may have provided an important reset for his players.

The Premier League leaders headed into the recent hiatus in Premier League fixtures on the back of suffering consecutive defeats for the first time this season, having exited the Champions League to Paris St Germain before losing the Carabao Cup final to Newcastle.

Slot says of all the breaks, this was the one he "needed the most", and he believes his players have returned refreshed and ready for the final nine matches as they try to close out a second title in five years.

"The first three (breaks) were after one or two months' work, this one was after four months of non-stop work so I like this one the most for the simple reason it was four months in a row," he said ahead of the visit of Everton for the 246th Merseyside derby.

"It was my first experience of playing in the winter so this one I liked the most, I needed the most as well.

"The mental break comes more from going to a different environment with different team-mates.

Good

"For that reason it was maybe a good moment after you lose two games. If you stay at your club you have to win your next game, but if you go to your national team things are new again.

"Lucho (Luis) Diaz had two goals (for Colombia), Cody Gakpo had a goal (for Netherlands), so a few of our players showed themselves in a very good way again."

The Reds' successive losses before the international break led to suggestions Slot's team were running out of steam, but the Dutchman rejected the premise fatigue was starting to play a part in their campaign.

"If I look at the Paris St Germain game, I don't think, in the eight or nine months I've been in the job, I saw my players work as hard as they did for 120 minutes," he said.

"Maybe that was also the reason why we looked tired in the final, but maybe I don't give the right credit to Newcastle, who made it difficult.

"They (Liverpool players) are maybe a bit more refreshed than in a normal international break because we didn't play at the weekend. Most of them had a few days off as well, for the first time in months they had three, four, five days off, so that is maybe the reason why I use the word 'refreshed'."

One player who did not go on international duty but still found himself in the headlines was the injured Trent Alexander-Arnold, with speculation continuing about a move to Real Madrid in the summer when his contract expires.

Focused

Slot, however, insists the situation has been rumbling on in the background all season so last week made little difference.

"Unfortunately he is injured and for him that means he is fully focused on his recovery," he said. "For us it means we will try to help him to be back as soon as he can."

"For eight months it (speculation) went a bit up and down with talks

Y AT ANFIELD TONIGHT

RARING TO GO: Jota and Van Dijk in training

about him, Virgil (van Dijk) or Mo (Mohamed Salah), but we have never been focused on those talks, we have always been focused on what we have to do.

"For Virgil and Mo, that is trying to win the Merseyside derby and for Trent it is trying to be fit as soon as he can.

"I think all these three players have performed so well under these circumstances so it doesn't affect me at all."

Meanwhile, Wayne Rooney says he can understand why a possible move to Spanish giants Real Madrid would be appealing for Liverpool and England right-back Trent Alexander-Arnold.

Alexander-Arnold is out of contract at Anfield this summer. He has reportedly agreed terms on a free transfer to Real.

"If Trent Alexander-Arnold does join Real Madrid this summer, fair play to him. I was once tempted to make a big move to Spain myself," Rooney said.

"Alexander-Arnold is 26 and out of contract at the end of the season, so he is in a position where he either commits the rest of his career to Liverpool or decides to go to Real — who clearly want him.

Speculation

"If he was to leave Liverpool for any other club you might wonder why, but, because it is Real we are talking about, I don't think you could question it as a good career move."

Rooney said that Real, Barcelona and Chelsea made approaches for him in 2010 when speculation was rife about his Manchester United future, before he agreed a new deal to remain at Old Trafford.

"A deal with Real looked more likely for a couple of days, but it was Barcelona whom I thought about the most, and how I might fit into their side alongside Lionel Messi, Andres Iniesta, Xavi and Sergio Busquets," he added.

"Real are the same now with superstars like Kylian Mbappe, Jude Bellingham and Vinicius Jr, so of course it must be appealing to Alexander-Arnold to think about playing alongside them — anyone would feel the same."

PLAY-OFF BOOST FOR SCOT SIDES

ALL Scottish Premiership clubs playing in European play-off round fixtures next season will be able to request postponement of one league match.

Any clubs in the Champions League, Europa League or Conference League play-off can reschedule their domestic fixture on the weekend of August 23-24, which falls between the first and second legs.

Scotland are set to have five representatives in Europe next term, and all of them could feasibly be involved in a play-off round.

This season, Hearts faced in a Europa League play-off against Viktoria Plzen, while Kilmarnock met Copenhagen in a Conference League play-off. Both Scottish sides were defeated on aggregate.

SPFL chief operating officer Calum Beattie said: "We are understandably very keen to support our clubs in qualifying for the league phase of UEFA competitions."

City ace out for rest of season

MAN City striker Erling Haaland is facing a lay-off of up to seven weeks, manager Pep Guardiola has said.

The Norwegian forward suffered an ankle injury in City's FA Cup quarter-final on Sunday.

The setback will rule the 24-year-old out for the rest of the domestic campaign but City are hopeful he will still be able to feature at the Club World Cup.

Guardiola said: "There are years where these kind of things happen and it's happened all season."

"All the injuries that we've had this season - I'm so sorry for them and for Erling as well. We want him to recover as quickly as possible and come back."

"The doctors told me between five and seven weeks, so hopefully for the Club World Cup he will be ready."

Haaland's absence is a major blow to City's hopes of securing qualification for the Champions League. Sunday's derby at United in the Premier League and the FA Cup semi against Nottingham Forest on April 26 or 27 are among the key games Haaland will miss.

The FA Cup final - which City still hope to reach - takes place on May 17, a day short of seven weeks after he suffered the injury.

The Club World Cup starts on June 18.
